Live 1-2-1 classes

In addition to group classes, learners can also choose Live Private classes. These can be used to focus on improving specific areas of language or for individual progress assessments.

Individual classes can be combined with group classes and other learning formats.

How it works

- Individual participants book live Private classes throughout the day with our flexible timetable.
- Options to select specific teachers.
- Develop a bespoke learning plan with a teacher focusing a particular learning goal or choose a flexible approach.
- Use credits interchangeably for group and individual classes.
- Use private classes to undertake detailed individual progress and fluency assessments.

Select a preferred time or teacher, based on their bio. Then join the live class.

All our teachers are highly qualified with extensive experience.

Track progress and impact

To help you evaluate impact and ROI, we provide a range of assessments reporting tools.

Assessment

- Placement testing is undertaken during onboarding, to benchmark your team against the CEFR framework and place individuals at the right level.
- Continuous assessment includes asynchronous tests that covering the language points from each theme. This is auto-marked, with instant results.
- Teacher-led fluency assessment is available to students that take an individual teacher assessment. Teachers assess comprehension, fluency, confidence, pronunciation, vocabulary and grammar and precision.

Reporting dashboards

- Individual progress reports cover assessment scores.
- Attendance reports show themes and lessons individuals have attended and completed.

What our learners and clients say

“It is indeed heartening to see that the participants are overall positive about the learning opportunity they have gone through. I join the entire team to thank you and your team which was actively engaged in this project. It can’t achieve anything without the high level of engagement you ALL had and continue to have on this subject. We are looking forward to an even stronger relationship with your team in coming years.”

FMCG Multinational (English for Work)

“I improved my abilities in grammar and learnt new words .I also improved my fluency. I feel that I can understand English much better now. These courses are great because in a little time one can learn a lot.”

Giannina (English for Work)

“The course comprised of online live interactive classes as well as some online assignments. The course content was very rich and designed in accordance with the day-to-day needs of the workplace. My teacher was one-of-a-kind. She was an enthusiastic person with a strong stimulus for students’ needs. She was extremely well organised and tailored her teaching in accordance with her students’ needs. She helped me a lot and I made big progress. The course has really made a difference and has boosted my language skills and confidence”
