

Course Outcomes: 11-12 (Secondary)

Waste not, Want not

Project	Language skills	Core skills	Real world knowledge	Class activities
Write a blog about with zero-waste tips for teens. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Talking about quantities. -Giving instructions. -Talking about waste, recycling and craft activities. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Critical thinking and problem solving. -Citizenship 	Find out about different ways of reducing waste.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Reading: Skimming and scanning combined. -Speaking: Expressing opinions. -Writing: Giving advice. -Listening: Asking follow-up questions.

To the Rescue

Project	Language skills	Core skills	Real world knowledge	Class activities
Create a survival kit and an emergency plan for a natural disaster. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Talking about facts, future possibilities and imaginary situations (zero, first and second conditional). -Talking about unreal events in the past (third conditional). -Discussing natural disasters. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Critical thinking and problem solving -Collaboration and communication. 	Learn about natural disasters and how people can respond to them.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Reading: Guessing the meaning of reference words. -Listening: Identifying key words in the question. -Speaking: Explaining how to do something. -Writing: Writing instructions.
