

Sr No	Module	Project	Language skills	Real world knowledge
1	Habit or addiction	Create and present literature to raise awareness of an addiction.	* Vocabulary related to addiction * Language to express causes and results	* Knowledge of the causes, consequences and treatment of addictions
2	Lost in Translation	Translate different genres of text and evaluate the translations.	* Use of anecdotes, proverbs and idioms * Paraphrasing skills when speaking and ways to ask for clarification	* Knowledge of jobs involving foreign language
3	Big Brother	Research and debate data privacy and surveillance.	* Analyse the effect of word choice in descriptive language * Analyse and use useful expressions for discussion and debate	* Stories of state and corporate surveillance
4	Ways of seeing	Present ideas for a creative project and write a proposal.	* Vocabulary for talking about art and different art forms * Language for evaluating different artworks	* An understanding about art and the senses
5	Comedy gold	Work as part of a group to write and perform a comedy sketch.	* Vocabulary to talk about comedy and humour * Generalisations and summaries to understand the main points and details in a discussion	* Benefits of laughter on mood, health and relationships.
6	Crowd support	Plan a crowdfunding campaign and write a letter requesting backing.	* Language for talking about events in the future * Structure paragraphs in compare and contrast essays	* Learn about the benefits and potential problems of crowdfunding
7	You cant judge a book	Contribute to a campaign to raise awareness of unconscious bias.	* Useful collocations for talking about bias and other social attitudes * Expressions for making and challenging assumptions	* Unconscious bias and its impact on behaviour and decisions
8	Crime and punishment	Discuss two sides of a court case and film a TV interview about the case.	* Language for talking about crime and punishment * Modal verbs to make deductions	* Possible explanations for crimes and other incidents
9	An intelligent future	Plan and hold a debate about artificial intelligence.	* Language for talking about hypothetical situations * Language to give opinions, make suggestions and reach a compromise in a discussion	* New AI technologies used in everyday life