Workshop 2	Day and date	Time	Batches
In the Future? In this workshop, kids will be encouraged to think more deeply about the story they've read. They should have a good understanding of the story setting and the characters, so that they can decide whether the story will be relevant in the future - more specifically, 100 years from now. The idea of the future tense and the use of 'will' and 'be going to' will be introduced and once they have decided on their story's future relevance, they'll present their ideas to other kids in small groups. By the end of this workshop, kids will have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>developed critical thinking skills</li> </ul>	Saturday 5 February 2022	10.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m.	Group 1 Group 2

Workshop 3	Day and date	Time	Batches
Dear Favourite Character... Here the kids will be asked to address their favourite character. They will be asked to write adjectives that describe the character, and using the same vocabulary, prepare a mini speech of approximately 90 seconds. This will enable the students to think deeply about reasons for which they like him/her, also use adjectives of character to convey their ideas. By the end of this workshop, kids will have learned to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>analyse a character more deeply</li> <li>develop critical thinking skills</li> <li>get familiar with vocabulary related to their favourite character (adjectives of character)</li> <li>make a speech for their favourite character stating why they like him/her so much</li> </ul>	Saturday 12 February 2022	10.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m.	Group 1 Group 2
