

	Pre-intermediate	Intermediate	Upper-intermediate
Module 1	This module focuses on building your skills in delivering structured presentations using signposting language. You will be introduced to techniques of speaking effectively using your voice and gestures in presentations. You will have group discussion practise and skills development and be able to extend with uninterrupted speaking and gain confidence. Focussing on pronunciation features such as difficult sounds and word stress will help in clearer speech. You will build on your vocabulary and conversation skills on a range of topics.	You will learn how to structure and organise what you want to say when delivering a mini presentation and sales pitch. You will be guided as to what techniques will better help you to effectively participate in a group discussion e.g. giving your opinion, interrupting politely, and reaching an agreement. You will develop your pronunciation skills, learn more and practice the different features of pronunciation and the sounds of English. You will also learn vocabulary that is likely to come in handy in your everyday language use.	Fine tune your presentation skills through developing skills in delivering a persuasive pitch and presenting a proposal. Be able to expand your arguments in group discussions and hold the floor. You will also become a more confident and fluent speaker through lots of conversation practice. You will develop your pronunciation skills to focus on syllables, voice modulation techniques, expressing surprise and interest and sound more natural. You will expand your vocabulary by being introduced to uncommon phrases, functional language, and expressions.
Module 2	This module focuses on preparing you for interview success. You will learn adjectives to describe your USPs, role play a mock job interview and get feedback to improve. You will deliver on the spot extempore and get extensive practise with various topics to build your confidence and fluency while speaking on the spot. You will learn pronunciation features which will help in being clear and accurate. Your vocabulary improves as you will be introduced to relevant phrases, functional language, and expressions on a range of topics.	In this module you will be introduced to strategies to speak at length and develop conversations, telling anecdotes and being able to have small talk on various topics. In interview skills, you will be given information about the types of questions you are likely to be asked and advice on how to answer. Learning to debate, which is another component of the course, will help you develop excellent critical thinking skills. Your pronunciation skills will improve by being able to differentiate similar sounds, use intonation to express emotions.	Excel in your interview skills by effectively highlighting your abilities and attending a full mock interview to practice. You will learn how to deliver an impromptu speech with little or no planning time. You will be introduced to lots of techniques to help you speak spontaneously. You will develop conversation skills and talk on topics such as friendship, annoying habits etc. In addition, you will develop your pronunciation skills by focusing on using effective features of pronunciation. Your vocabulary range will improve through learning less common expressions and phrases.